

Community Information

1. Objective

We are committed to helping you obtain and share community information.

2. Our Service Commitment

- a) We accept information, such as community events, calendars, and public announcements, from community groups. Our information sharing focuses on non-profit and non-personal purposes but may extend to meet the objectives of specific Library programs including tourism.
- b) We provide municipal and provincial government information.
- c) We monitor information to ensure it is current.
- d) Each branch has a bulletin board for posters and a display rack for flyers. We share local tourism information through these means as well as online.
- e) Our website provides online links to community and government organizations.
- f) We use our social media platforms to provide community, business, and public interest stories.
